Purpose

The goals of this assignment are the following:

- Get experience with a technical research paper review process, how to evaluate the technical contribution of a research paper, and how to summarize a technical article.

Research Paper

What your review report should include: [100 points]

1. What is the specific problem author/s trying to address / solve? [10 points]
2. What is the claimed contribution of their work? [10 points]
3. Did they discuss and compare the related work? How does it compare with their proposed solution? [10 points]
4. What is the importance / significance of the claimed contribution? [10 points]
5. How did they approach the problem (i.e., proposed solution)? [15 points]
6. Is the proposed solution convincing / technically sound? [15 points]
7. Strength / weakness of the proposed solution [15 points]
8. What could be done more to improve the technical aspect of the paper (in your opinion)? [5 points]
9. Overall presentation quality of the paper. Clarity, write-up style, readability, references used etc. [5 points]
10. Your review report format: Margin 1.87 cm all sides, times new roman font (11 size), single line spaced, and must not exceed 1.5 pages in length. [5 points]