Micro-Enterprise

What is Micro-Enterprise?

Micro-Enterprise (M.E.) is an innovative program developed by "My Sisters' Place". It is a place for empowering and inspirational women facing homelessness to create and sell beautiful and original jewelry. The program shows the artisans how to operate a business, while giving them a chance to make something beautiful, in both the products and friendships they make.

Who We Are

Women at risk of homelessness are the artisans creating this original and creative jewelry. Through the Micro-Enterprise program women:

- receive a chance to make something beautiful
- learn how to operate a business
- gain companionship and a sense of purpose
- get to give back to the community

M.E. artisans have faced or are still facing challenges such as homelessness, abuse, addiction, mental illness, unemployment, trauma, isolation and poverty.

People can book a table to sell M.E. products at their events or corporate meetings.

Original and Recreated Jewelry Pieces

The centre provides transitional support to women who are homeless or at risk of homelessness. M.E. artisans have either faced, or are still facing, homelessness, abuse, addictions, mental illness, under-employment, trauma, isolation, and poverty. They sell jewelry at meetings, community events, and conferences. All proceeds go back to our collective organization and a significant portion pays the artisans for their work.
